

74th Great Lake Regional Conference of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc.

Amicae Auxiliary of the Year Award for 2008

~CRITERIA~

The Amicae Auxiliary of the Year Award is a special honor to receive as a Zeta Amicae Auxiliary of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. This award is given to an Amicae Auxiliary in recognition for having exceeded all expectations of practicing sisterhood, outstanding community service, teamwork, and commitment to Zeta, Amicae, and the community as well as compassion for the mission of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc.

The qualification for Amicae Auxiliary of the Year includes active and financial membership as an Amicae Auxiliary for at least 2 years. The Amicae Auxiliary must demonstrate the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority's Founding Principles of Finer Womanhood, Service, Sisterhood, and Scholarship. In addition, community service must be clearly defined and innovative to show how the Zeta Amicae Auxiliary impacts the lives of the community in a positive and productive manner. The Amicae Auxiliary Reports will be used to judge this competition.

The recipient must be present at the 74th Regional Conference in Indianapolis, IN April 27, 2007.

Auxiliary reports must meet the following criteria:

- Same criteria/format as the chapter/auxiliary reports
- active and financial membership for the past 2 years
- Nomination form signed by the Amicae President and Zeta Chapter President/designee
- brief statement as to why you think the auxiliary exemplifies best all around creativity and productivity within the auxiliary and community

The entries will be judged by a special committee, which will include both Zetas and Amicae selected by the Regional Amicae Coordinator. Entries must be received via email, fax, or "snail" mail no later than April 7, 2007. NO EXCEPTIONS. Please allow 5 to 7 days via regular US Postal Service to deliver your entry by April 7th.
